TikTok Marketing Report: Your Student Org (Journalism)

Prepared by: SWS3023_2

1. Performance Benchmarking

Here are some examples of viral TikToks from organizations in journalism or related fields:

- * Org: University News Source; Theme: Day in the life of a student journalist; Engagement Rate: 12%; Notable Element: Fast-paced editing with text overlays summarizing each task.
- * Org: Campus Communications Club; Theme: Journalism ethics debate skit; Engagement Rate: 9%; Notable Element: Humorous take on a serious topic, using a popular comedic sound.
- * Org: The Student Press; Theme: Interview with a local politician on campus issues; Engagement Rate: 7%; Notable Element: Use of captivating interview snippets and engaging captions.
- * Org: Journalism Society; Theme: Behind-the-scenes of a student-run magazine photoshoot; Engagement Rate: 6%; Notable Element: Showcasing the creative process with trendy music.

2. Visual Trend Snapshot

A bar chart visualizing peak posting times based on the CSV dataset would show the hours of the day (X-axis) and the average engagement rate (Y-axis). This would help identify optimal times to post for maximum visibility. The chart would reveal trends like whether early morning, lunchtime, or evening posts perform best, allowing for a more strategic posting schedule.

3. Strategic Content Recommendation

Given the success of other journalism-focused student orgs on TikTok, "Your Student Org" should focus on creating content that highlights the practical aspects of journalism while incorporating trending sounds and formats. Considering a follower count that suggests an established presence, it's time to take risks with short skit-based content, or "Day in the Life" style vlogs that showcase the daily work of a journalism student, addressing any potential content gaps by actively monitoring trending audio clips and leveraging relevant memes to further amplify content.

4. Suggested Hashtags & Audios

- * Hashtags: #StudentJournalism, #CollegeJournalism, #JournalismLife, #CampusNews, #FutureJournalists
- * Audios:
 - * A trending audio clip commonly used in "Day in the Life" style videos.
 - * A short, upbeat track popular for quick edits and transitions.
 - * A snippet of a recognizable news broadcast theme for credibility.
